Welcome

It never gets old, coming to Vegas to take part in the flagship outdoor multisport event for racquetball, handball, paddleball. The 2023 KWM Gutterman 3WallBall World Championships. This world-class event, held for the fourteenth consecutive year at The STRAT Hotel, Casino & Sky Pod, presented by AGE Solutions, LPL Financials' Roscoe Hasley, Team Root & ProKennex, brings together hundreds of professional and amateur players in the most unique environment that any of our sports have ever experienced.

Glow up as bright as you want.

For the fourteenth year, this event supports and promotes the efforts of Military Racquetball Federation / MACS and their Racquetball Rehabilitation Programs. FROM: MC 3WallBall

It's hard to believe that this is our fourteenth time to the dance and the greatest thing is how it keeps evolving every year. So long as all of you players and spectators come to the 3Wall-Ball World Championships, we'll be happy to host it. But you know that the players and spectators are only half of the equation and that it would never happen without the great staff and sponsors. We are grateful for our amazing sponsors, and we are thankful for their support. The event staff includes Tom Flores for handball, Aaron Embry for paddleball, racquetball / event director Peggine Tellez, co-director Jen Omeara, media director Leo Vasquez all of the sports desk and registration staff and lastly, Rick "Soda Man" Koll. When you see these people, or anyone else on the event staff, pat them on the back, and tell them about how much fun you're having because the event wouldn't happen without their hard work. Now get out there and have a great time. THIS IS VEGAS, BABY!!!

USA Racquetball / World Outdoor Racquetball

USA Racquetball is proud to support the 3WallBall World Championships and wants to extend our sincere gratitude and appreciation to Mike Coulter and his team for their multi-year efforts to create an event that annually attracts so many people to Las Vegas for a truly unique dynamic racquetball experience. Congratulations on 14 outstanding years of arranging a one-of-a-kind outdoor world championship!

World Outdoor Racquetball (WOR) and all the outdoor racquetballers love showing off their skills under the bright lights and sunshine of Las Vegas! WOR, formed in 2004, helped organize, promote, and govern the exciting game of outdoor racquetball, providing high visibility and bringing new players to come out and enjoy playing. Early successes included finding and promoting courts throughout the United States; creation of the WOR Championships; and development of a red ball best suited for outdoor play with the durability to hold up under grueling conditions.

WOR's focus on outdoor play resulted in the outdoor racquetball exploding in popularity. More than 24 states will hold a series of WOR events every year. The fun, party-like atmosphere has drawn new players to the sport in addition to bringing indoor players outside. One of WOR's proudest moments was partnering with 3WallBall to create the ultimate court sports event in the world. The excitement of the 3WallBall World Championships brings players from around the world to Las Vegas to celebrate outdoor! As outdoor has grown, WOR has partnered with many associations including USA Racquetball (USAR) and the Military Racquetball Federation (MRF/MACS) that together have used outdoor racquetball to market our sport to service members & veterans by erecting courts in amazing locations like on the sands in Virginia Beach at the Warrior Games. MRF has also hosted Racquetball Rehabilitation Clinics in Florida, Phoenix, Las Vegas, North Carolina and several other locations.

WOR's focus is to grow the sport by working to get new courts built throughout the country. WOR, World Players of Handball (WPH) and National Paddleball Association (NPA) work to support these groups of dedicated players working with their local parks and recreation departments. The number of cities, clubs, and even private individuals that are working to build outdoor courts has skyrocketed. The sun, the fun...outdoor can't be beat! WOR is incredibly proud and honored to partner with 3WallBall and the STRAT for the most exciting event in racquetball. World Outdoor Racquetball (WOR) was acquired by USA Racquetball in 2017. Stewart Solomon, President USAR

CPRT (Classic Professional Racquetball Tour)

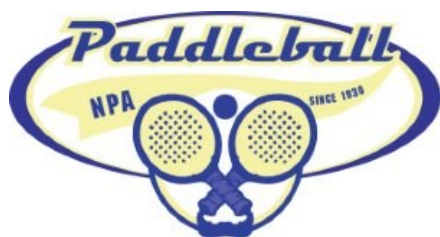

The Classic Professional Racquetball Tour (CPRT) is one of the cornerstones of the 3WallBall World Championships and is proud to support the event again. The CPRT mission is “Stars of the past supporting the future of Racquetball” featuring our 40+ players. Great pro players including Rocky Carson III, Alvaro Beltran, Robert Sostre, Rick “SodaMan” Koll, Craig Lane, Jason Geis and others have played in CPRT events in recent years. The tour, which has been featured in both outdoor events, like the 3WallBall World Championships & WOR Championships, and indoor events, like the US Open Championships, is evolving as the baby-boomers mature and Generation X enters the eligible pool. Racquetball’s legacy continues.

National Paddleball Association

The National Paddleball Association is proud to participate in the KWM Gutterman 2023 3WallBall Multi-Sports World Championships in Las Vegas, Nevada. We are happy to be partnered again with our court sports brothers and sisters from racquetball and handball at this amazing event. This will be the 12th year the NPA has managed the paddleball component at 3WallBall Vegas.

Where else can you witness terrific matches in paddleball, racquetball and handball at the same venue?

While handball is the mother sport for both 1-Wall and NPA paddleball, you will see the many similarities and some of the differences between 1-Wall and 3-Wall paddleball. Both of which are incredibly fun to play! Paddleball’s influence can be seen at the start of racquetball, as the paddleball rules were adopted at the creation of the International Racquetball Association. It is natural that the combination of these sports to occur at 3WallBall Vegas and on such a magnificent stage, we hope you have a wonderful competition.

MACS – 3 WallBall Designated Charity

The 2023 KWM Gutterman 3 WallBall World Championships will feature several events in recognition of its commitment to support Military Adaptive Court Sports (formerly the Military Racquetball Federation). The first official event of the week is the Pro-Am Charity Doubles where pro racquetball players partner with donors who made contributions to help support MACS' racquetball rehabilitation programs for wounded warriors. The main event offers singles and doubles amateur divisions for Police, Fire & Military personnel as well as an adaptive division for our program players. On Saturday night, a US Military Honor Guard will pay tribute to all those players in the event who have served our country, and whom we invite to take part in the ceremony. This year, with help from some of our supporters, we are providing transportation for a few of our Vets to take part in the Adaptive Division. Join us in cheering them on over the weekend.

3 WallBall - We Appreciate Your Support

SAVE THE DATE!

The KWM Gutterman 3WallBall World Championships presented by Age Solutions and ProKennex is shaping up to be the most exciting ever! The very best wallball athletes in the world will again descend on The Strat in Vegas to compete in this annual multi-sport extravaganza. Both the Men's and Women's draws are absolutely stacked! Mike, Peggine and the entire 3WallBall staff have done it again. The excitement caused by the possible dream match-ups is palpable.

The 3WallBall Championships and the Beach Bash have historically fed off each other's success with tremendous synergy. Both the annual Beach Bash and the 3Wallball Championships offer 1-wall racquetball, with a target market to include folks who play primarily indoors, or 3-wall RB, or paddleball. Now it's typical to see players crossing over all those earlier dividing walls.

I have been able to stay in contact with the Beach Bash event as its shepherd, but have handed over the operations to 3WallBall's Mike Coulter and Peggine Tellez. Their team continues this legacy event and moves it forward with the inclusion of paddleball divisions. Beach Bash restarted in 2022 and continued in 2023 with arguably the deepest draws we've seen in 1-wall in a long time. 3WB has worked all these years to include the LPRT & IRT and it is paying off with more and more of their Tour players coming to these outdoor events and helping to raise the bar on quality play and for the fans to enjoy.

The Historic Courts at Garfield Street in Hollywood, Florida will again be the backdrop for the 2024 Beach Bash on March 13-17, 2024. Save the date!

The Historic Courts at Garfield Street have a unique and wonderful vibe. The locals are boisterous, enthusiastic and sincerely appreciative. The pristine beach is less than 100 yards from the courts, close enough to take a quick dip between games.

The courts are right on the Hollywood Beach Broadwalk, a 2½ mile long brick-paved oceanfront promenade lined with over 50 restaurants, boutiques, shops and entertainment.

If you bring your family once, they'll make sure you come back every year after that.

See you at the Beach in March! Vic

3WallBall Throughout the Years

During my time as the Commissioner of the Classic Professional Racquetball Tour (CPRT), a local Las Vegas player approached me at the 2008 CPRT Pro Nationals to see if we were interested in some possible support from one of the Strip's hotels. David Grolman was the Vice-President of Operations for The STRAT Hotel, and I introduced him to the two future Hall of Fame Contributors to Outdoor Racquetball; Mike Coulter and Hank Marcus. The STRAT came on board as a CPRT Sponsor but more importantly, The STRAT had two other significant assets; a big open parking lot on Las Vegas Boulevard and a second high-level Executive that was also a racquetball player, Tom Moore. Over the next year and a half, plans came together to turn that parking lot into a 10-court world-class outdoor venue to host the richest outdoor event in history and the first ever combined professional racquetball AND handball event. World Outdoor Racquetball and the World Players of Handball joined forces to support the event and in September 2010 3Wallball was founded and the first annual 3Wallball World Championships was held. This inaugural event had nearly 800 entries and was Internet broadcast on two networks to 31 countries.

In 2011, 3Wallball not only added additional courts for the year two but also added a third sport as the National Paddleball Association came onboard with both professional and amateur divisions. Each of these early years saw increased participation and enhancements to the venue and overall event. 2012 saw the introduction of the 3Wallball Cup Series that connected events throughout the year and across the country to the 3Wallball World Championships and increased visibility and a year-round profile for 3Wallball.

In 2013, 3Wallball added professional and amateur one-wall divisions as the Championships continued to grow and evolve into the event as we know it today. In 2015, over 400,000 viewers watched over 11 million minutes (about 21 years) of action broadcast on ESPN3 and the WatchESPN app. In 2016, ESPN returned with a 12% increase in viewers and 18% increase in viewing time. By 2017, there were 17 courts and nearly 1500 matches played with competitors from 30 states and 7 countries; numbers that remained consistent since then.

2023 is the fourteenth anniversary of the 3Wallball World Championships and over that time the event has showcased many of the greatest players in the history of racquetball, handball, and paddleball. The event has been the recipient of great support from the manufacturers of each sport and consistent support from many local sponsors, most notably of course, The STRAT. The 3Wallball World Championships has been a supporter of several charities including the National Fibromyalgia Research Association, the Boy Scouts of America, and the Military Racquetball Federation.

Through the years I, and the event, have seen and experienced a lot. There were rain delays (isn't Las Vegas in the desert?), wind storms that lifted the courts off the ground, a bomb scare that evacuated the hotel stopping play, a truck crashing through the glass doors of The STRAT and many round the clock nights of play. I'll always have fond memories of Thursday matches ending at 5am and Friday matches starting at 6am with only time for a quick shower and warm milkshake with Hank. I'll also always appreciate all the players that took care of me and our staff with coffee, breakfast, snacks, late night BBQ from their RV's, and maybe even an adult beverage or two.

As I look back on the last thirteen years, I am incredibly thankful and proud to have been a part of this event from the beginning as the Tournament Director for the first seven years and working behind the scenes with a great team since. The vision of Mike Coulter and Hank Marcus along with the support of The STRAT and the many organizations within the sports, helped launch the greatest series of events in Outdoor 3 wall and 1 wall history. Every player in every year of the events was part of something special, and it was for them that we did this and continued to put on the 3 Wallball World Championships.

Vic Leibofsky

Outdoor racquetball on Las Vegas Boulevard? Heck yea! Count me in! That was my reaction when Hank Marcus first told me about Mike Coulter's vision for 3WallBall. Let's make this happen! What can I do?

Steve Lerner did an amazing job and set the standard as Event Director. Coordinating Racquetball, Paddleball, and Handball is no easy task, especially when you layer on 1wall and 3wall. This event has had a positive lasting effect on all three sports that lasts beyond the weekend each year. It's been an honor to be part of the 3wallball team since the beginning.

I had huge shoes to fill when I took over as Event Director, as Steve Lerner had set the bar very high! We were able to continue the tradition of excellence and participation snowballed.

Personally, my 3WallBall experience started out with a bang. My wife Patty and I got married on Friday night of the second year of the 3WallBall Championships in 2012 at the top of The STRAT Hotel. Our post to join us for a drink afterwards turned into 150+ attendees at an unplanned player party! Vegas Baby!

I tried to help Steve in any way that I could during his years as Event Director. Thank goodness I did, as good karma was on my side in 2017. Hurricane Irma made landfall on Sept 10, 2017, and I was without power, no cell service and no internet until I left for Vegas. I had to leave my house for any contact with the outside world. With only 11 days before the tournament started on 9/21/2017. Yikes. Out of the blue, Peggine Tellez swooped in like a superhero and saved the day. And so, the torch passed, this event is in great hands now!

Hank Marcus

This will be the 14 year anniversary of 3WallBall and like everything in life that seems so long ago, when I think about the planning & the first year, it seems like it was only yesterday. Fourteen years is a lifetime in our sport & an event like this where you literally have to build the "club" to host it; what an amazing accomplishment & legacy.

There were many doubters that 3WallBall would happen that first year. Up to that point, outdoor had built one court for events in Southern California & in partnership with the Military Racquetball Federation on the USS Bonhomme Richard aircraft carrier thanks to Chuck West & Scott Winters. It was at the MRF event on the aircraft carrier that Mike Coulter had a vision. If you could build one portable court, then you could build enough to host a major tournament in Las Vegas. The months leading up to the first event were filled with messages every day from players & sponsors asking if this was really going to happen! My stock answer was no matter how difficult or groundbreaking you think this is, it will happen. Mike has never started a project he hasn't finished. When the first pictures began to roll in of the start of construction, people were hooked. I will never forget my first live look at the courts on the Monday prior to the event; it was amazing to see all the courts in the shadow of The STRAT Tower & lights from the Las Vegas Strip.

So, the real secret of this event is the people that made it happen, who spend all their time in the background allowing the players, fans & sponsors to enjoy the limelight & the event. Exactly the way it should be. After 13 years, a quick shout out to those that created the legacy from the start. Mike Coulter for his vision, stubbornness, expertise & love of the game; Alan, Haberto & his crew who every year spend two weeks in the heat building the 3WB city & tearing it down in 3 days; David Grolman who saw & supported the vision on The STRAT's parking lot; Steve Lerner for all his organizational & diplomatic skills; Randy Lam for his year round diligence & communication; Dave Vincent/WPH who realized that Racquetball & Handball are brothers with much more in common than different. So many people have contributed so much over the years to make this happen, but these are the pioneers that had the vision to create year 1 of something many said would never happen.

Dave Grolman

I'll never forget walking in the parking garage and tower at The STRAT with Mike Coulter in 2009 and talking about putting on an outdoor racquetball tournament somewhere on the property. We were in the tower, and I pointed down to the large parking area and said "how about right there?" The rest is history, and an amazing feat that not many people besides MC could have pulled off. From that moment I also fell in love with the sport of outdoor and have been privileged to meet the many people connected with the sport. People thank me for helping put on the tournament in the early days, what they don't realize is that I thank the tournament for all of the lifelong friends it has given to me.

Rick "SodaMan" Koll

I fell in love with playing outdoor racquetball on my first visit to the Outdoor National Championships in Huntington Beach, watching all the pros and amateurs compete. Outdoor sure seemed like the future of racquetball to me.

After leaving California, I looked everywhere for some 3 wall courts in Las Vegas. NO LUCK!! Mike Coulter and I had been playing some indoor ball and we started tossing around ideas of where to start with this whole process of building some outdoor courts.

Tom Moore came on board through his association with us through indoor as did David Grolman both from the STRAT. The rest is history going on year 14. WOW!!!

For all of us to pursue: Just introduce a few buddies to play this event, let them experience the atmosphere and see the game played at the highest level and its attainable level. We can grow this sport a few friends at a time!!

Tom Moore

3WallBall Throughout the Years

When Mike first discussed the concept of having a significant outdoor tourney in Las Vegas, I thought it was an incredible idea and the parking lot across the street from The STRAT seemed like the perfect spot. MC had big ideas and big plans as 3WallBall was born. As President of Stratosphere Development at that time and I took the idea to my boss, the CEO, and he loved the concept. Working inside The STRAT, along with David Grolman, to build internal support, sponsorship, and alignment with the vision, finding sponsors and navigate the various departments within The STRAT, I becoming Mike's inside man, Lol. The first year was very challenging with a huge learning curve, but each year has gotten better and bigger. The plan to bring racquetball, handball and paddleball together in the same tourney turned the 3WallBall event from just another racquetball tournament to a SPORTING EVENT. It's a phenomenal event and our association with the Military Racquetball Federation makes this tourney that much more special. It has been my privilege to work with Mike over all these years to help to make this the best event every year and this year is no exception. I'm looking forward to seeing everyone in Las Vegas again this year.

Peggine Tellez

One of the few times I get the last word.... I came to this unique event as the latest in the line of amazing event directors and promoters with huge shoes to fill following Steve Lerner and Vic Leibofsky. My involvement began in 2010 as part of the official charity, Military Racquetball Federation, I had a ringside seat to this exceptional and entertaining spectacle.

A couple of years back, WOR Hall of Famer, Vic, asked if I could contribute to the event by scheduling the racquetball and paddleball portions. I accepted of course. Then the hurricanes hit Texas and Florida. Vic was effectively cut off! Juggling the players needs as best I could, I kept asking myself, "WWVD - What would Vic do"? Rely heavily on the awesome staff that he had assembled with their tons of experience until Vic could rejoin the world. That was my baptism of fire which led to being asked to take on the overall event in 2018.

Taking the helm has come with its own set of challenges, turning a parking lot to a full-blown venue in the span of days that only someone with MC's experience could tackle year after year, adapting the dates based on the ever-growing calendar of events in Las Vegas, battling the regulatory requirements of Covid and succeeding against all odds to hold the only National racquetball event in the country after March 2020. Our constant driver has been the players that love these sports, coming together in this outdoor arena. WOW! Each year the footprint has expanded bring more courts and the who's who of players testing each other's limits at this showcase venue is thrilling.

My experience in all manner of racquetball operations, whether as the President of California indoor racquetball or the USA Racquetball National Event Director, has helped to prepare me to continue the tradition of the directors before me. The players genuinely having a great time, while competing at astonishingly high levels, the bantering and heckling that comes with the social and interactive nature of these outdoor sports. Honoring our Heroes and Hall of Famers, it has been my pleasure to join the outdoor family.

I am grateful for everyone associated with this phenomenal event, the passion, the incredible number of hours involved in putting out fires and handling the smallest details to ensure that the players have an incredible experience, things we only do because we love our sports so much. The people who began this project, Steve Lerner Hank Marcus, Tom Moore, Dave Grolman, Rick Koll, all standing beside Mike Coulter to forge this spectacle, thank you isn't enough. Randy Lam, whom spent days of his life behind the scenes to make sure the vital elements were handled - we miss you! We have the collaborative efforts of the LPRT & the IRT, whom are streaming our matches, Todd Boss keeping the commentators informed and Leo Vasquez running media point. Jen Omeara, whom has become an integral part of the leadership team. The driving force behind the new web design and the best partner in tourney ops there is. The Staff on the sports desks, some of whom have been here since the start, deserve the lion's share of praise and thanks!! As well as our family members whom must think we've lost our minds - hugs, kisses and thank you! To the players, thank you and have a blast - you never know when this might be the last.
